Upcoming selections:

August: Gentleman in Moscow, by Amir Towles -- August 5

This is the story of Count Alexander Rostov who in 1922 is deemed an unrepentant aristocratic by a Bolshevik tribunal and is sentenced to house arrest in the Metropol, a grand hotel across the street from the Kremlin.

September: Hamnet, by Maggie O'Farrell -- September 2

Warwickshire in the 1580s. Agnes is a woman as feared as she is sought after for her unusual gifts. She settles with her husband in Henley Street, Stratford, and has three children; a daughter, Susanna, and then twins, Hamnet and Judith. Hamnet dies in 1596, aged eleven. Four years or so later, the husband writes a play called Hamlet.

October: JAMAICA INN, by Daphne du Maurier -- October 7

The coachman tried to warn her away from the ruined, forbidding place on the rainswept Cornish coast. But young Mary Yellan chose instead to honor her mother's dying request that she join her frightened Aunt Patience and huge, hulking Uncle Joss Merlyn at Jamaica Inn.

We look forward to seeing you soon!

PS: Don't have time to read or maybe finish the book? Not a problem ... we'd like your company either way!

HAPPY READING!
